

THE ROVERS ROVED FAR

But Not in the Direction of Home Plate

WERE NO MATCH FOR B. A. C.

Latter Team Won Saturday's Game by
Score of 14 to 3—The Visitors
Were Playing Out of Their Class.

The Barre Athletic club repeated its dual slaughter of the Verdi club last week at the seminary campus Saturday afternoon by grilling to a fine finish the Swanton Rovers. The score was 14 to 3 and the trio of digits necessary to express the outcome mutely tells the story of how the local swatsters took candy away from the Swanton children. The Rovers roved in almost any direction but the home plate and in the field they hooted and fumbled the ball after the manner of a team of hired men organized to play only on lowly days in the haying season.

It was far from a clean-cut contest at every stage. The visitors were simply playing out of class and even the locals evinced a disposition to go the distance with as little effort as possible. Tommy Davidson did the teasing for the home lads and he seldom allowed the upstate team a spurt. He was opposed by a shock-headed youth named Cross, who had almost everything in his repertoire but control. Cross is something of a speed artist, but success will not bisect his path while he comes over with such travesties on the art of twirling as his work of Saturday. Seven men who could not reach and strain far enough to connect with his offerings were given free tickets for the first lap.

The few features that the mangling-fest disclosed may be briefly enumerated as follows: Double plays by Stuart, Nute, Taplin and Fowle; Broe's line drive in the sixth for four sacks; Loisel's circus stop of McKenzie's screaming roller in the seventh; the line of hard hit furnished by Third Baseman Moore of the Rovers; Broe's stick work in innings 1, 3 and 5; Bill Johnston's homer in the fifth; hits by Bill Johnston; more hits by Bill Johnston.

ters, the home boys added a cluster of nine in the remaining six.

Bell-Rose Nute came over with a handsome sacrifice fly in the sixth that enabled Fowle to score.

Tommy Davidson is not officially credited with any appearance at bat; and yet in the totals it will be found that he scored twice. The young Barre twirler was even more fortunate than his teammates in drawing free ones.

Beor replaced Cross in the box for Swanton after the sixth inning. The change should have been made earlier in the game.

In the closing chapters of the affair, it was suggested that some of the regulars be relieved. The crowd appreciated the manager's decision to end the ordeal as early as possible by keeping the lineup intact.

A deceptive wind made it almost impossible to pull down a fly in the outfield or back of the plate.
Brave Fowle took first base in the seventh and Taplin went into catch, the change being made on account of an injury sustained to Fowle's finger several days before the game.

Jim Nute said it was a good game up to the second inning. Tom Mercer was talking about something else and refused to be interviewed.

TURN TABLES ON SARANAC

I. A. C. Wins Second Game by
Score of 10 to 9

IN A WELL-PLAYED GAME

Home Team Piles Up Seven Runs in Fourth Inning—Saranac Started to Rally in Seventh, but Fell One
Short of Tying Game.

The goddess of victory shone favorably on the Italian Athletic club baseball team Saturday afternoon at their new grounds off Berlin street, when they captured the final game of the two-day stay from the Saranac Lake baseball team by a score of 10 to 9. The game was of long duration, two hours and a quarter of time being consumed to arrive at the seventh changing place, when the game was called to allow the visitors ample time to take the train for Burlington. This resort team, which is one of the strongest aggregations of ball players that have been assembled here this season, had easy picking Friday afternoon with the I. A. C. Determined to give the New Yorkers a stiffer proposition, the local lads went into the game Saturday resolved on playing their best.

By taking advantage of every play in the sixth inning, the I. A. C. secured two passes, furnished evidence of seven runs. This little bee, combined with the three runs previously made, was sufficient, making the count ten. In the seventh inning the Saranac team started a rally, which coiled one run short of a tie. Stafford, the first man up, was passed, stole second, and scored when Williams let Torney's grounder through him. Torney took third on the same play, Bottiggi making the error. Lee struck out. McLaughlin spanked a clean single to center, scoring Torney. McLaughlin fell before Berini's powerful whip on an attempt to steal second. Beaton touched the steam valve and fanned Wescott. Such desperate hitting has not been seen here for some time. Both teams met the ball squarely, time after time driving the ball straight into the waiting fielders' outstretched hands. McLaughlin and Wescott of the visitors gave an excellent exhibition of batting, the former using the ash to advantage for four hits out of five. Wescott doubled the first time up, slashed out a homer the next, and connected for three bases on the third approach. Comoli was the heavy stickler for the winners. Joe's mighty pole told the tale of three hits.

At the front end of the 90-foot walk for the New Yorkers was Dimmick, who gained fame as a pitcher at Dean academy. He was as wild as Beaton, passing the same number of men. He evinced the local twirler in strike-outs, numbering 10 of the I. A. C. men on his list.

Notes of the Game.

A poor crowd for a Saturday game. Win Adams, the pitcher that trimmed "Jake" Malcolm at Burlington in the Tufts-Vermont game on Memorial day, is to join the Saranac team at Saranac this week.

Because not in condition, Soldini withdrew, Giacomuzzi taking his place in the sun garden.

Williams, the former Spaulding man, was given a chance to show his mettle at second base. Williams is a consistent hitter and does well on the bases. In the field he slipped up on two wicked drives, but with a little seasoning should be capable of handling the position with the best of amateurs.

"Stan" Berry, the Vermont man, who was visiting in this city yesterday, was entreated to defer his departure a day. He donned a suit and was drafted into Comoli's place behind the bat. The visiting base stealers soon gained respect for Berry's right arm. At the bat, he sent a slashing triple to left center in the fourth inning that brought in two runs.

Sullivan, the Saranac manager, was a peevish man after the fourth inning. He was doing his utmost to start a rally every inning thereafter.

Without a doubt, McLaughlin, the Dean captain this past season, is about the best all-around first baseman seen in these parts this year. He handles himself like big league timber, both at bat and in the field.

CORNELL MAKES CLEAN SWEEP IN HUDSON REGATTA

Ithacans Finish First in Varsity and
Freshmen Eight and Four-Oared
Races—Wisconsin Finishes
Second in Two Events.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., July 1.—Cornell university yesterday upheld its reputation for oarsmanship by winning all three races rowed over the famous Poughkeepsie course on the Hudson. The Cornell crews did not always win easily, but in the three contests in which some of the best amateur oarsmen of the United States were pitted against them in a severe trial of their respective brawn, brain and watermanship, Cornell showed that it had lost none of that skill which has in recent years made it the leader in the annual regattas on the Hudson.

The regatta results:
Varsity Eights, Four Miles.
Cornell, 10m 21 2-5s.
Wisconsin, 12m 25s.
Columbia, 10m 41 2-5s.

SPORTING NOTES.

"Kid" O'Keefe, the former Burlington high school all-around athlete, who covered third base for Lehigh university the past season, is playing third for the Belows Falls club of the Twin State league. Brown, the Williams college shortstop, has joined the Pittsfield Independent club baseball team.

"Pat" O'Day, captain of the baseball team at the university of Vermont in 1911, has joined the ranks of major league ball. The Philadelphia Nationals give the youngster a chance at second. Vermont seldom sees a year slip by without at least one claiming the yellow and green for their alma mater going into the big leagues.

"Jake" Stahl, the manager of the Red Sox, banks on Ray Collins as one of his mainstays for the season.

The Boston Red Sox are paying Russell Ford back some old scores. This season the one-time terror of the Boston camp has been the victim of defeat thrice at the hands of Stahl's boys.

"The Rube" Marquard Steam Roller company (inc.) is the simile of that "steam roller" which is applied by the Giants with Marquard in the box.

The New England league still upholds its reputation of the cradle of baseball players now, as it did of old. Scan the list of players who are to leave their ranks this year.

Casey Hageman, whom the Boston Red Sox paid $5,000 for last season, has been sent back to the Denver club. Since his leaving Boston he has been pitching for the Jersey City team of the International league.

Sterrett, the former Princeton catcher, is giving a fine account of himself behind the bat for the New York Americans. He has caught for the past three years at Princeton and has been considered by scouts to have no peer in college baseball. It is hoped he may follow in the path of Henry, the old Amherst man, who has made good at Washington.

Cleveland has three heavy and consistent hitters in a row in their batting order. Joe Jackson is batter number three on the list. Jackson is hitting well above 300. He is followed by Lajoie, who stands second in the league with high average. Griggs, the first baseman, comes after the great Frenchman. Griggs is hitting around 350. With this trio of batters, the Cleveland team should be capable of furnishing runs.

Maloney, the young outfielder obtained a few weeks ago by the New York Americans from the Brooklyn New England league club, is giving a wonderful exhibition of fielding. At Boston they claim him to be one of the best in the league.

Cornell university retains her high standing in rowing. For years the university has claimed the supremacy of other colleges on the water. Saturday at Poughkeepsie Cornell without difficulty captured the varsity eight and four oars and also the freshman eight.

Kenneth Nash, captain and shortstop of the Brown university baseball team, has reported at Cleveland for a tryout. If the youngster can keep the pace he set at college, he will make good.

Saturday Marquard won another game, making the long row of victories nearer the score mark. McGraw is using excellent judgment. He sends the Rube against the weak-kneed Boston Nationals about every third game.

Dannie Maher, the American rider, stands second on the list of winning jockeys in England this year. F. L. Wooton, the Australian jockey, who has been riding in England for years, heads the American.

Brown Navy Strong Man.
Reports of the strength tests taken at the Naval academy during the academic year show that J. H. Brown of Pennsylvania is the academy strong man, having secured a total of 7,280 pounds in the different tests. This is the record for the period during which the present system of marking has been used. Brown is a crack line-man on the football team and has been classed as all American guard.

Captain Dalton of the football team is second, with 7,120 pounds. The next two are also football men. The figures obtained by the six men just below Dalton are: Howe, third class, 6,900; Vaughan, third class, 6,820; Ramsey, fourth class, 6,740; Gilchrist, third class, 6,500; Perry, fourth class, 6,580; Gurley, first class, 6,500.

Fox Hunting For Germany.
Emperor William will introduce fox hunting into Germany. He has commissioned Frank Bartlett, huntsman of Earl Fitzwilliam's grove hounds of England, to form a pack which will consist of sixteen and a half couples, including a hound for breeding purposes from the Duke of Beaufort's Badminton pack, two females from the grove, two from the Galway Blazers, Ireland, and fourteen couples from the leading packs of the United Kingdom. They will be taken to Potsdam.

The kaiser's second son, Prince Eitel Friedrich, will undertake the duties of master fox hunter.

Frank Killen to Come Back.
Frank Killen, the Pirates' star left hander of the early nineties, has the comeback fever. He is working out with a semiprofessional club in Pittsburgh and believes he can give Calhoun cards and spades and still show him how to play the game.

Archer a Real Irishman.
An item is going the rounds to the effect that, while there are many players of Irish blood in the majors, the only real star of Irish birth is Jimmie Archer, catcher of the Chicago Cubs. Roger Bresnahan, then, is considered a second rate.

Mercer is Penn Captain.
Le Roy Mercer, the University of Pennsylvania all round athlete, has been elected captain of the Red and Blue track team for 1913. He is also captain of this year's football team and held the same honor last year on the eridron.
